MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT &amp; COMMUNICATIONS

(Department of Transport)

(Transport Wing)

New Delhi, the 5th July 1963

G.S.R. 1187.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 218 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (44 of 1958), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the National Welfare Board for Seafarers Rules, 1963.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

- (a) "Act" means the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (44 of 1958);

(b) "Board" means the National Welfare Board for Seafarers constituted under section 218(1) of the Act;

(c) "Chairman" means the Chairman of the Board;

(d) "Director-General" means the Director-General of Shipping, Bombay;

(e) "Secretary" means the Secretary to the Board;

3. Board to be constituted every two years.—The Board shall be constituted for a period of two years at a time.

4. Composition of the Board.—The Board shall consist of—

(a) The Minister of Transport and Communications, Chairman ex-officio;

(b) the Minister of Shipping, Vice-Chairman ex-officio;

(c) the Director-General of Shipping, member ex-officio;

(d) six representatives of the Central Government to be nominated by that Government;

(e) eight representatives, one each to be nominated by the Governments of the States of Andhra Pradesh, Gujarat, Kerala, Madras, Maharashtra, Mysore, Orissa and West Bengal;

(f) six representatives of port authorities in Bombay, Calcutta, Cochin, Kandla, Madras and Vizagapatnam, to be appointed by the Central Government;

(g) five representatives of shipowners to be appointed by the Central Government after consultation with the shipowners;

(h) five representatives of seafarers to be appointed by the Central Government after consultation with associations of seafarers, if any;

(i) three Members of Parliament of whom two shall be nominated from the Lok Sabha and one from the Rajya Sabha;

(j) four members to be appointed by the Central Government representing societies interested in the welfare of seamen;

(k) one representative of the Company of Master Mariners of India to be appointed by the Central Government;

(l) a non-official to be nominated by the Central Government;

(m) the Deputy Director-General of Shipping in charge of seamen's welfare, member ex-officio.

5. Term of Office.—Subject to the other provisions of these rules, every member of the Board other than an ex-officio member shall hold office for a period of two years:

Provided that a Member of Parliament shall hold office for a period of two years or for so long as he continues to be a member of the House which he represents whichever is less.

6. Casual vacancies.—A casual vacancy in the office of member shall be filled by nomination or appointment, as the case may be, and a member so nominated or appointed to fill the vacancy shall hold office for so long only as the member whose place he fills would have continued to hold office if the vacancy had not occurred.

7. Resignation by members of the Board.—A member may resign his office by letter under his hand addressed to the Chairman but he shall continue in office until his resignation is accepted by the Chairman.

8. Removal of members from office.—The Central Government may at any time remove from office any member of the Board—

(a) if he is continuously absent from India for a period of more than twelve months and has not obtained the permission of the Chairman for such absence;

- (b) if he absents himself from three consecutive meetings of the Board without the permission of the Chairman;
- (c) if he is an undischarged insolvent;
- (d) if he is convicted of an offence which, in the opinion of the Central Government, involves moral turpitude;
- (e) if, in the opinion of the Central Government he has ceased to represent the interest on whose behalf he was appointed;
- (f) if, in the opinion of the Central Government, it is for any other reason to be recorded in writing, not desirable that he should continue to be a member.

9. Suspension of representation on the Board of Bodies or Associations.—If, after such enquiry as it may deem necessary, the Central Government is of the opinion that any body or association which is represented on the Board has acted or is acting in a manner prejudicial to the interest of seafarers generally, it may, by order, suspend the representation of that body or association for such period as may be specified in that order.

10. Register of Members.—There shall be maintained a Register in which the names and addresses of all members shall be entered; any change of address of a member shall also be entered in the register.

11. Secretary of the Board.—(1) The Deputy Director-General of Shipping in charge of Seamen's Welfare, who is an ex-officio member of the Board under rule 4 shall also function as Secretary to the Board.

(2) The duties of the Secretary shall be:—

- (a) to convene, under the directions of the Chairman, meetings of the Board or of any Committee of the Board;
- (b) to maintain the Minute Books and the register of members;
- (c) to assist the Chairman in the discharge of his functions; and
- (d) to undertake such other duties as may from time to time be entrusted to him by the Board.

12. Meetings.—(1) The Board shall meet ordinarily once in six months and may, if necessary, meet at shorter intervals.

(2) An extraordinary meeting of the Board shall be convened if not less than five members send a written requisition to the Chairman stating the object for which the meeting is proposed.

(3) Every meeting shall be held on such date and at such time and place as the Chairman may fix.

(4) Every meeting shall be presided over by the Chairman or in his absence by the Vice-Chairman or in the absence of both, by the Director-General of Shipping, or, if he is also absent, the members present shall elect one from amongst themselves to preside over the meeting.

13. Notice of meetings.—(1) Notice of the place and the date and time of each meeting shall be sent to the members at least fifteen days before the date of the meeting:

Provided that a shorter notice may be given in cases where, in the opinion of the Chairman, the meeting has to take place urgently.

(2) A notice under sub-rule (1) may be delivered either by hand or sent by registered post to the last known address of the member.

14. Agenda.—Along with the notice of meeting referred to in rule 13, a list of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting shall be sent to every member, and no business which is not on the list, shall be transacted at the meeting except with the permission of the Chairman.

15. Quorum.—(1) The quorum for a meeting shall be fifteen.

(2) If at any meeting there is no quorum, the meeting shall be adjourned to a later date, such date being not earlier than fourteen days from the date of the original meeting; and business may be transacted at the adjourned meeting whether or not there is quorum.
